Eagle Promise

I reaffirm my allegiance

To the three promises of the Scout Oath.

I thoughtfully recognize

And take upon myself

The obligations and responsibilities

Of an Eagle Scout.

On my honor I will do my best

To make my training and example,

My rank and my influence

Count strongly for better Scouting

And for better citizenship

In my troop,

In my community,

And in my contacts with other people.

To this I pledge my sacred honor.

What Is NESAs?

The National Eagle Scout Association (NESAs) is a fellowship of men who have achieved the Eagle Scout rank. Only 5 percent of Scouts ever reach this goal. Former CIA director Robert M. Gates and retired astronaut James A. Lovell Jr. are two of NESAs's 250,000 members.

Only those who have been granted the Eagle Scout Award by, and who are members in good standing with, the Boy Scouts of America may hold membership in the National Eagle Scout Association. Applications for NESAs membership are cross-checked against the national Eagle Scout register maintained by the Eagle Scout Service.

Gift Memberships

Membership in NESAs makes a great gift for a new Eagle Scout or perhaps an Eagle Scout friend from the past whom you wish to "reclaim." The Scouting program keeps in contact with Eagle Scouts through their membership in NESAs, so the importance of enrolling all new and past Eagle Scouts cannot be overemphasized. Don't miss the opportunity to enroll a friend or relative with a meaningful and appreciated recognition of their extraordinary achievement. Copy the attached application and "capture" a fellow Eagle.

NESAs Benefits and Opportunities

As a NESAs member, you will:

- Be a part of something larger than yourself (NESAs has 250,000 members).
- Receive the Eagletter—a magazine that keeps NESAs members informed of what Eagles are doing around the country and developments in the Scouting movement.
- Have several opportunities for service with your troop, district, council, and NESAs committees at Scouting functions such as:
 - Gathering of Eagles (at local, regional, and national levels)
 - Eagle Banquets and other award and recognition events
 - Merit Badge Colleges/Weekends
- Receive an invitation to a special gathering at the national Scout jamboree
- Be able to support the NESAs scholarship program (adults only).
- Network with Eagle Scouts on the local, regional, and national levels.

What Is the Investment?

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

The NESAs life membership is available for a one-time payment of $180. Members will receive an attractive, full-color plastic wallet card and wall certificate. (Because you are an Eagle Scout for life, NESAs life membership is highly encouraged.)

REGULAR MEMBERSHIP

A five-year new or renewal NESAs membership is available for $25. A basic plastic wallet card and wall certificate are provided with this membership level.

Payment Methods

The National Eagle Scout Association accepts Visa, MasterCard, and checks for membership payment. Do not send cash.

Special Handling/Overnight Delivery

Special handling is available for $25. Overnight delivery also is available for $15. Weekend deliveries will be charged according to current rates incurred by NESAs. Special handling and overnight delivery services must be purchased together. Note: The $40 charge is in addition to the membership fee.
